

GP du
GP

Is It Easier To Do The Montreal Grand-Prix On A Bike Than Get A Family Doctor?

Getting a family doctor in Canada is hard.

But we noticed something: Doctors are into sports cycling!

So on August 15th our friend (dressed in scrubs) is riding all 70 laps of the Montreal Grand Prix on a bike while we attempt to flag down a doctor to ask them: Will you take on a patient?

Could That Patient Be You?

Sign up at canadiancivil.com or come see us on the day to get added to the list.

Support us to find other events and join our BBQ afterwards to celebrate.

Canadian Civil is a production organization for reform and advocacy focused content creators in Canada.

Alive is our all-day event where we collaborate and draw attention to issues with our supporters who make this work possible .

